

Château Plaisance

2018

Château Plaisance is located on the right bank of Bordeaux, with a history that can be traced back to the 18th century. Its legacy is marked by prestigious ownership, including Michelin-starred restaurant Dubern, football star Bixente Lizarazu, and the esteemed Magrez family of wine magnates. This vineyard, nestled in the sun-drenched rolling landscape, cultivates its grapes with a blend of traditional techniques and cutting-edge winemaking technology, resulting in wines that are both uniquely characteristic and rooted in tradition.

Tasting Notes:

“There is a good attack of fruit here and the Merlot is tense and racy while the Cabernet adds some muscle and intent. The nose is red cherry-scented and the chassis is a little more slender and curvaceous than many of the other more powerful wines in this vintage and it is a very nicely packaged wine. It will need one or two years to soften and then this will be a fragrant, sleek cherry-bomb of a wine.”
