

Château Puy Guilhem

2018

Founded in 1780, Château Puy Guilhem graces the sun-soaked valleys of Fronsac on Bordeaux's right bank, a true treasure in this acclaimed region. From 2016, to maximize its land's potential, the vineyard enlisted the expertise of renowned agronomist Claude Bourguignon and collaborated with legendary winemaker Stéphane Derenoncourt. This partnership has led to the creation of consistently exceptional and highly revered wines.

Tasting Notes:

The aroma of this wine intertwines with rich blackberry, deep black licorice, and damp soil, accompanied by subtle graphite notes. The wine is full-bodied and rich, with a silky smooth texture that's delicate and finely nuanced, resulting in a lingering finish. It showcases an awe-inspiring sense of layer and depth, highlighting the wine's unique character. The velvety mouthfeel is captivating, akin to a smoothly gliding fabric on the palate, providing a pleasurable sensation.
